

BRENDA KRANER

Brenda Kraner is a learning and performance professional with over 25 years of experience improving individual and organizational performance. Through assessment, development, and evaluation, Brenda enables others to realize their full potential and optimize their performance and productivity.

Brenda is a leadership consultant for government and businesses as well as a Lecturer and the Program Director for Wright State University's Organizational Leadership undergraduate program. She also serves as the Director for Internships within the undergraduate program at WSU. She is currently a PhD candidate at OSU in the field of Workforce Development and Education with a concentration in HRD.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Leadership Development
- Coaching for Success
- Effective Teamwork
- Employee Engagement
- Performance Conversations

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

- Manufacturing
- Higher Education
- Government
- Service Industry

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATES

- Ph.D. candidate in Workforce Development and Education at OSU
- M.A., Applied Behavioral Sciences with Training & Development Concentration, Wright State University
- B.A., Psychology and Business, Otterbein College
- Qualified Myers-Briggs Type Indicator Administrator & StrengthsFinder Facilitator

"Brenda's high energy training style and her ability to relate the material to her participant's needs is right on the mark. She brings genuine leadership experiences to the learning environment and engages participants in the learning process, making training fun and relevant."

Cindy Schisler, Senior Training & Development Specialist

Brenda has a wide variety of facilitation, leadership consulting and curriculum development experience from a large variety of clients. She has spearheaded citywide strategic planning processes and provided 360-degree leadership development and coaching for supervisors and managers within government and private organizations. Her client list includes: Wright-Patt Credit Union, Shook Construction, Takumi Stamping, Henny Penny, Dayton Children's Hospital, Cox Media, Luxottica, KDMK, Regal Beloit and the Cities of Hamilton, Fairborn, and Dayton.

Brenda excels in creating informative, interactive and engaging teaching approaches for the successful transfer of learning. She has created and delivered numerous leadership development and employee development programs.

Brenda is a national member of The Association for Talent Development and is past president of the local Western Ohio Chapter. She is also a national member of the Academy of Human Resource Development, International Leadership Association, and the Academy of Management.