Academic Year (AY) 2020 - Civilian Developmental Education (CDE)

Head ups! The Civilian Development Education (CDE) Call will open 1 March – 1 May. CDE consists of short and long term leadership training programs to meet long term Air Force leadership needs and to prepare high-potential employees for increased responsibility and shared leadership with military.

There are three levels of civilian developmental education:

1. Basic Developmental Education (BDE)
2. Intermediate Developmental Education (IDE)
3. Senior Developmental Education (SDE).

This year the process will change and interested employees will submit their packages through myVector. To verify if you have an active myVector account you can go to: <https://myvector.us.af.mil/myvector>.

Be prepared and ensure your 1st & 2nd level supervisors have an active myVector account before the CDE call opens.
